

Lay Confraternities in Early Modern Japan*

WORKSHOP ①

The Misericórdia confraternity

Topic: Limits of the Misericórdia in Japan (1553-1633)

Speaker: Dr. Rômulo da Silva Ehalt
Max Planck Institute for Legal History and Legal Theory

Brief presentation by the author followed by discussion of the following book chapter:

Rômulo Ehalt 'In their Likeness: Japanese Misericórdias and the Limits of the Misericórdia in Japan (1553-1633)' in Isabel dos Guimarães Sã & Lisbeth Rodrigues (eds.), The Confraternities of Misericórdia and the Portuguese Diasporas in the Early Modern Period, Brill 2023.

Attendants are expected to read the chapter in advance.

The chapter for discussion will be circulated in advance to registered attendants.

Date: Friday October 25th 2024

Time: 15:30-17:30h

Place: Meeting Room 812 West Building 3 8th Floor

〒152-8550 Tokyo, Meguro-ku, Ookayama 2-12-1

Institute of Science Tokyo, Ookayama Campus, Institute of Liberal Arts

Access: https://www.fl.ila.titech.ac.jp/access_e.html (map attached below)

Organizer: Carla TRONU MONTANÉ, Institute of Liberal Arts, Institute of Science Tokyo

Registration: email to tronu@ila.titech.ac.jp (if possible) by Monday October 21st
(email subject: Confraternities Workshop 1)

*This event is part of the KAKEN Project 'Laity in the Early Modern Japanese Mission: Confraternities and Missionary Rivalry' (20K13157 2020-2024)