

Lay Confraternities in Early Modern Japan

WORKSHOP ②

Women and Confraternities

Speaker: Prof. Haruko Nawata Ward
Columbia Theological Seminary

Lecture by the speaker (60 mins approx.) followed by questions and discussion.

This will be a hybrid event. Please specify if you want to participate face to face at Science Tokyo or online (via Zoom). The Zoom link will be sent to registered users the previous day.

Date: Friday November 29th, 2024

Time: 15:30-17:00h

Place: Meeting Room 812 West Building 3 8th Floor
〒152-8550 Tokyo, Meguro-ku, Ookayama 2-12-1
Institute of Science Tokyo, Ookayama Campus, Institute of Liberal Arts

Access: https://www.fl.ila.titech.ac.jp/access\_e.html (map attached below)

Registration: email to tronu@ila.isct.ac.jp by Wednesday November 27th
(email subject: Confraternities Workshop 2)

Organizer: Carla TRONU MONTANÉ
Associate Professor, Institute of Liberal Arts, Institute of Science Tokyo

This event is part of the KAKEN Project 'Laity in the Early Modern Japanese Mission: Confraternities and Missionary Rivalry' (20K13157 2020-2024)