

Lay Confraternities in Early Modern Japan

WORKSHOP ③

Indulgences for Confraternities

Speakers: Dr. Emi Kishimoto, Osaka University
Dr. Carla Tronu Montané, Tokyo Institute of Science

Commentator: Dr. Yoshimi Orii, Keio University

Short presentations by the speakers and the commentator about two printed documents on the indulgences granted to the Confraternity of the Rosary, which have been recently identified at the Library of Studies and Heritage of Toulouse (France), followed by questions and discussion.

This will be a hybrid event. Please specify if you want to participate face to face at Science Tokyo or online (via Zoom). The Zoom link will be sent to registered users the previous day.

Date: Friday January 24th, 2025

Time: 15:30-17:30h

Place: Meeting Room 812 West Building 3 8th Floor
〒152-8550 Tokyo, Meguro-ku, Ookayama 2-12-1
Institute of Science Tokyo, Ookayama Campus, Institute of Liberal Arts

Access: https://www.fl.ila.titech.ac.jp/access_e.html (map attached below)

Registration: email to tronu@ila.isct.ac.jp (email subject: Confraternities Workshop 3)

Organizer: Carla TRONU MONTANÉ, Institute of Science Tokyo

This event is part of the KAKEN Project 'Laity in the Early Modern Japanese Mission: Confraternities and Missionary Rivalry' (20K13157 2020-2024)